

Marianne DeMarco

Role of the Computer Coordinator

Technology Mission

My Instructional Technology mission is to create a collaborative and interactive learning environment in which all students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the community can work together by providing an atmosphere rich in technology. Each person will have the ability to apply the use of technology to achieve their educational goals, enhance their skills, and pursue intellectual exploration by integrating technology in all areas of curriculum.