

Searching Tips

A Helpful Guide to Search Engines, Top Page

How To Use Web Search Engines -- The Spider's Apprentice helps you use web search engines and understand search engine technology. We rate, rank and analyze the popular Web search engines in clear, easy-to-understand language. We also provide help and advice on search engine optimization (SEO), keywords, meta tags, and improving your search engine position and rankings.

KidsClick! Worlds of Web Searching

Internet Filters

GetNetWise | Tools for Families

Search Engines

Kids Search Engines

A list of search engines designed for kids or families, either in focus or by filtering out possibly inappropriate sites.

Internet Safety

SafeKids Quiz

GetNetWise | Online Safety Guide

FBI Publications - A Parent's Guide to Internet Safety

About the Federal Bureau of Investigation

WiredKids: Parents, Parenting Online

Using an Alias: Are We Teaching Our Children to Protect Themselves or to Lie?

Project Interconnect | Permission Forms | Acceptable Use Policy

Project Interconnect's Permission Forms for an Acceptable Use Policy

Description of the web

Finding Information on the Internet: Table of Contents

Finding Information on the Internet, Tutorial on the Internet, World Wide Web searching, Choosing the best search tools or engines to refine searches and get the documents you want, Evaluating Web, Critical Thinking, Search Engines, Web Directories, Meta-Search, help searching

Webquests

The WebQuest Page at San Diego State University

The WebQuest Page includes freely available training materials and examples of the WebQuest lesson format.

Kathy Schrock's Guide for Educators - WebQuests

A categorized, annotated list of over 2000 sites to help educators, teachers, and parents enhance instruction and support the curriculum.